The School will be conducted under the su-pervision of N. G. BUFF, former Principal of Farmer's Academy. Paor. H. P. HALL has been secured as First Assistant. Other competent teachers will be employed, so as to form so en-ergetic corps of lastructors. OBJECT. The object of the School is to prepare classes

cor more advanced places at the opening of the College proper in 1860. Students desiring to take a thorough course in College, can not overvalue the advantages of this Preparatory year; and students in general will find this one of the most thorough and practical Schools in the West. The course of study will embrace those branches which, in the regular course, belong to the Preparatory Department; yet if a sufficient num-ber apply, more advanced classes will be taught. TERMS.

The year will be divided into three terms, of twelve weeks each, with two weeks vacation between torms. reliable Medicine for
